

Supporting Curriculum Development for the International Institute of Justice and the Rule of Law in Tunisia

Sheraton Hotel, Brussels
10-11 April 2013

AGENDA

DAY ONE - 10 APRIL 2013: CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT

08:00-08:45 Registration and Coffee

08:45-09:15 Session I - Overview: Purpose and Objectives

Alistair Millar, Director, Center on Global Counterterrorism
Cooperation

Gilles de Kerchove, EU Counter-Terrorism Coordinator, EU
Council Secretariat

09:15-10:45 Session II - Principles and Objectives for Good Curriculum Design

Presentations and moderated discussions in this session will focus on identifying the essential ingredients for effective rule of law-based training curricula, highlight good practice in curricula design, development and delivery, and stress the importance of coordinating training across various professions.

Lt. Col. Mohd Faiz Bin Ahmad, Deputy Director, Planning and Training, Southeast Asia Regional Centre for Counter-Terrorism

Christian Eshun, Course Director, Training Department, Kofi
Annan International Peacekeeping Training Centre

First Prosecutor Dr. Rainer Hornung, Director, German Judicial Academy

Nicholas Martin, Capacity Building Advisor, Counter Terrorism
Department, United Kingdom Foreign and Commonwealth
Office

Moderator: Alistair Millar, Director, Center on Global Counterterrorism Cooperation

10:45 -11:30

Session III - Developing a Core Rule of Law Course Offering

During this session, presenters and participants will discuss the components of a fundamental course offering on the role of the rule of law through the criminal justice system. Participants will also discuss how a core rule of law course offering can be integrated into training for police officers, prosecutors, prosecuting judges, judges, and correctional officers.

Angela Conway, Director, Middle East & North Africa Division, American Bar Association

Dr. Khalid Koser, Deputy Director and Academic Dean, Geneva Centre for Security Policy

Zaved Mahmood, Human Rights Officer, United Nations Office of the High Commissioner for Human Rights

Moderator: Anton du Plessis, Executive Director, Institute for Security Studies

11:30-11:45

Coffee Break

11:45-13:15

Session IV - Curriculum Development Challenges for Prosecutors and Investigating Judges: Good Practices, Opportunities, and Challenges

Panelists will discuss the types of general professionalization modules that are required for prosecutors and investigating judges, along with proposed course content. Presenters and participants will also discuss specialized modules, in particular as they relate to terrorism prevention and cooperation with international counterparts.

Kent Cassibry, Assistant Director-Distance Education, Office of Legal Education/National Advocacy Center, US Department of Justice

Jos De Vos, Training Advisor, Judicial Training Institute, Belgium

Ranganath Manthripragada, Coordinator for International Initiatives, Counter-Terrorism Section, US Department of Justice

Arvinder Sambei, Barrister, Sambei Bridger & Polaine Ltd.

Moderator: Dr. Khalid Koser, Deputy Director and Academic Dean, Geneva Centre for Security Policy

13:15-14:15

Lunch

14:15-15:45

Session V - Curriculum Design for Judges: Good Practices, Opportunities, and Challenges

Presentations during this session will focus on the types of general professionalization modules that are required for judges, along with proposed content. During this session, presenters and participants will also discuss specialized modules, in particular as they relate to terrorism prevention and cooperation with international counterparts.

Hon. Celeste Bremer, Chief United States Magistrate Judge for the Southern District of Iowa

William J. Brunson, Director of Special Projects, National Judicial College, United States

Mansour Hadidi, Director General, Judicial Institute, Jordan

Samuel Vuelta-Simon, Deputy Director, National School of Magistrates, France

Moderator: Alix Boucher, Senior Analyst, Center on Global Counterterrorism Cooperation

15:45-16:15

Coffee Break

16:15-17:45

Session VI - Curriculum Design for Police: Good Practices, Opportunities, and Challenges

This session will serve as an opportunity to examine principles and practices of curriculum design for law enforcement personnel. Presenters and participants will discuss the types of general professionalization modules that are required for police forces, along with proposed content. They will also discuss specialized modules, in particular as they relate to terrorism prevention and cooperation with international counterparts.

Valeria Benavente, Programme Administrator, Capacity Building and Training Directorate, INTERPOL

Pol. Maj. Gen. Monthon Ngerwattana, Executive Director, International Law Enforcement Academy, Bangkok

Jean-Daniel Pitteloud, Assistant Director, Office of Legal Affairs, INTERPOL

Moderator: Peter Knoope, Director, International Centre for Counter-Terrorism – The Hague

18:00-18:30 Wrap up of First Day and Plan for the Second Day of the Workshop

Discussion facilitator: Anton du Plessis, Executive Director,
Institute for Security Studies

DAY TWO - 11 APRIL 2013: CURRICULUM DEVELOPMENT DISCUSSIONS CONTINUED

08:30-09:00 Breakfast and Coffee

09:00-10:30 Session I - Curriculum Development Challenges for Correctional Officers: Good Practices, Opportunities, and Challenges

During this session, presenters and participants will discuss the types of general professionalization modules that are required for correctional officers, along with proposed content. They will also discuss specialized modules, in particular as they relate to terrorism prevention and cooperation with international counterparts.

Jack Burger, Program Manager, Dutch Prison Service, Ministry of Security and Justice, Netherlands

Alison Hannah, Executive Director, Penal Reform International

Dr. Roberto Pandolfi, Prison Manager, Department of Penitentiary Administration, Italy

Phil Wragg, Governor, HM Prison Belmarsh, United Kingdom

Moderator: Peter Knoope, Director, International Centre for Counter-Terrorism – The Hague

10:30-11:00 Coffee Break

11:00-12:30 Session II - Public Engagement and Awareness When Developing Rule of Law and Criminal Justice Sector Curricula

During this session, presenters and participants will discuss how training can impact public perceptions of the role of the criminal justice sector and expectations for improved rule of law and service delivery.

Dr. Peter Alexander Albrecht, Project Researcher, Danish Institute for International Studies

Marie-Laurence Cassegrain, State Prosecutor, France

Dr. Tamara Takács, Senior Researcher, Asser Institute

Moderator: Alix Boucher, Senior Analyst, Center on Global Counterterrorism Cooperation

12:30-14:00

Lunch

14:00-15:30

Session III – Working to inform the curriculum development process: learning from existing training models

During this moderated session, participants will discuss the process for developing the Institute’s curricula.

Dr. Stefano Failla, Head of Unit, Programme and Project Management, CEPOL European Police College

Mauro Miedico, Terrorism Prevention Branch, United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime

Filippo Musca, Acting Scientific Director, International Institute of Higher Studies in Criminal Sciences, Italy

Moderator: Alistair Millar, Director, Center on Global Counterterrorism Cooperation

15:30-16:00

Coffee Break

16:00-17:00

Wrap up, Next Steps and Closing Remarks

Anton du Plessis, Executive Director, Institute for Security Studies

Peter Knoope, Director, International Centre for Counter-Terrorism – The Hague

Alistair Millar, Director, Center on Global Counterterrorism Cooperation